This Week In....

Math - We will focus on counting, writing and modeling ways to show the numbers 16, 17, 18, and 19. Practice identifying numbers and word names. (i.e. 18, eighteen)

Reading - We will be reading stories about going on adventures. Our stories this week are both fantasies! We will be looking for clues as we read that the story is a fantasy, not real. We will be focusing on the skill of Cause and Effect in our reading.

Science - We will focus on our daytime and nighttime sky. Students will observe that the occurrence of night and day is a repeating pattern.

S.S. - We will be identifying different jobs, in our school, home and community. We will then compare the jobs that provide goods with those that provide services. We will end the week discussing how technology has changed these jobs over time.
